

Alex Houston Joins dormakaba Americas as COO

INDIANAPOLIS – April 9, 2020 – Effective April 1, Alex Houston has joined dormakaba as the designated new Chief Operating Officer for Access Solutions AMER, which includes businesses in the USA, Canada, Mexico and South America. As such, he will serve as a member of the dormakaba Group Executive Committee. Houston will be based in the company's Americas headquarters in Indianapolis.

"The dormakaba portfolio includes some of the most trusted solutions in the access control market," said Houston. "I'm honored to join the rest of dormakaba's talented, forward-thinking team of professionals as a steward for our customers."

Houston will continue to lead dormakaba with a growth-oriented strategy based on innovation, customer-first mentality and bringing the best of breed products to market to serve as a better industry partner.

"Urbanization is changing the world of access," said Houston. "This infrastructure shift requires new security solutions that incorporate technology appropriately and work across a wide range of demographics in increasingly diverse settings. We will continue to create products, solutions and services that help make access smarter and more secure for all of our customers."

Before joining dormakaba, Houston held progressive leadership positions at Carrier Corporation, a subsidiary of United Technologies Corporation (UTC). His most recent role was as Vice President and General Manager of Carrier's Fire & Security Products Americas business. Houston holds Bachelor of Science in Industrial Engineering and Master of Business Administration degrees from Purdue University.

"Alex has had an outstanding track record at UTC," said Riet Cadonau, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, dormakaba Group. "We are very much looking forward to his contributions as a member of our leadership team."
